Come under the sea with me.

All red and yellow and blue.
You can catch a crab for me,
And I can catch a fish for you.

Come under the sea with me.
Let's see what we can see.
We can stop and look at a big, white whale
And see it swim away.
We can find a snake with a spot on his tail.
See the dolphins smile and play.

Song

I live in the city, and I have a giraffe.
He sleeps in a big, square cage.

I ride him to school. He's very strong.
He's orange and black, and his legs are long.
"Oh, no," says my teacher. "I'm sorry.
Your huge giraffe can't come in."

So I tie my giraffe to the gate.
From my desk, I see him wait
And wait and wait all day.

Then we eat ice cream and play!
We eat ice cream and play.
