How to find

the perfect housemate

89% of university students in the UK live away from home, and nearly half of them share a house with other students at some time during their studies. But how do you know who to share with? It can be a difficult decision. Are you quiet, serious, shy, and hard-working? Or are you extrovert, fun loving, and noisy? It's an important difference, and it can make sharing a house either a great experience or a nightmare.

So next time you're trying to decide who to share a house with, do this questionnaire. And then ask your possible housemates to do it. If you give the same answers to four or more of the questions, then you'll be fine. If more than three of your answers are different, then you need to find a new housemate!

3 READINGSan Francisco*– capital of cool

San Francisco is a very cool place. It's the home of hippies and 'flower power', and it's full of friendly, relaxed people. It's also one of the USA's most attractive cities.

Facing the Pacific Ocean to the west and San Francisco Bay to the north and east, it's famous for its hills with their fantastic views of the Bay, and its beautiful bridges. It's a perfect base for a holiday, close to the Napa Valley, home of the Californian wine industry, and a few hours' drive from the mountains of the Sierra Nevada.

The best way to explore San Francisco is on foot. Walk slowly through North Beach, with its relaxed European charm, then into busy Chinatown. Go up expensive Nob Hill, and then continue into South Market and the Mission District, with their many nightclubs. San Francisco is famous for its liberal lifestyle, and it has some of the most incredible nightlife and wonderful food anywhere in the States.

San Francisco is a popular place to visit at any time of the year. Summer is the tourist season, so prices are higher, queues are longer, and finding a parking place is impossible. The best months for weather are between mid-September and mid-November, but you'll have a great time whenever you go.

a Read the text once. Would you like to visit San Francisco?

b Answer the questions.

1 What can you see to the north, east, and west of San Francisco?

2 Is it a good idea to drive around when you visit?

3 Which are the best two areas for music and dancing?

4 Give three reasons why summer isn't the best time to visit.

5 Which month has the best weather?

c Cover the text. Can you remember five reasons to visit San Francisco?

A nasty experience

- My grandmother didn't notice anything at first, but when she went to bed that evening she found that her jewellery wasn't in the usual place. And then she remembered the girls and called the police. They were very sympathetic but I don't think they'll ever catch the girls.
- My grandmother had a nasty experience last weekend. She's 82 years old and she lives on her own. I've always told her to be careful when she's answering the door because you never know who's outside.
- 'What are you doing up there?' she shouted and the girl said, 'Can I use your toilet please?' My grandmother said yes and didn't worry about it although the girl was upstairs for ages. She gave the girl in the kitchen a glass of water. Then the second girl came downstairs and they left.
- My grandmother thought that they looked like nice girls so she invited them in. They looked round the living room and then one of them said, 'Can I have a glass of water please?' so my grandmother took her into the kitchen. While they were in the kitchen she heard the other one run upstairs.
- Anyway she was at home last Sunday it was about 4.00 in the afternoon and she heard someone knock at the front door. She opened the door and there were two girls outside about 10 or 11 years old. Hello said one of the girls. Our parents are going to buy a house like yours very near here. Can we have a look at your house please? We want to see what it's like.

A hard lesson

My name's Jon, and this happened to me when I was on holiday in Seville, in the south of Spain.

I was having a coffee in a bar when a man came up to me. He was quite smartly dressed, and he looked very respectable. 'Do you speak English?' he asked. He definitely wasn't Spanish, but I'm not sure where he was from. 'I'm very sorry to bother you, but I have a serious problem,' he continued. 'I'm here on a business trip, and I've lost my briefcase – it had my passport, my wallet, my money, my credit cards, my mobile, my address book, everything! Could you help me? I need to borrow 60 euros to get the train to Madrid – my company has an office there. I'll pay you back, of course. When I get home, I'll send you the money. You can give me your address in England.' I wasn't sure, but he didn't seem suspicious, so I agreed. I wrote down my home address on a business card he had, and I gave him 60 euros. I even bought him a coffee.

We chatted for a few minutes, and then he looked at his watch and said, 'Well, I should get to the station. Thank you very much for your help. You'll have your money back in a couple of weeks, I promise!' And he walked out of the bar.

So do you think he paid me back? No, you're right, he didn't – and I won't lend money to strangers again!

fast food, Italian bakeries, hundreds of Thai, Chinese, Vietnamese, and Korean restaurants, and in-and-out Japanese noodle shops, it's possible to eat your way round the world during a single San Francisco weekend.

Eating out in SF

Whatever food you're looking for – an all-you-can-eat breakfast, a quick lunch, a romantic dinner – you'll find it in San Francisco. The city is home to over 4,500 restaurants and eating places. And they're not only for tourists. On average, San Franciscans eat out 267 times a year.

You can eat food from anywhere in the world, from Afghan to Argentinian, and from Vietnamese to vegetarian. With Mexican and you don't find good food only in expensive restaurants. You can try great cooking in any number of small eating places, where prices are low and reservations aren't needed.

Portions are often large, but you can ask the restaurant to pack up anything you don't eat so you can take it home. But wherever you eat, if you have waiter service, don't forget to tip. The exact amount you leave is up to you, but 15–20 per cent of the bill is normal.

An easy way to calculate your tip is to double the sales tax (currently 8.5 per cent).

a Read the article and mark the sentences T (True), F (False), or ? (Doesn't say).

Divorced Portuguese men get Internet survival guide

Change your bed sheets once a week, keep pans near the cooker, and never wash white clothes with dark ones.

That is just some of the advice you can find on a popular new Internet site designed to help recently divorced Portuguese men do the housework which their wives always did for them when they were married.

Men in Portugal usually live with their parents, where their mothers usually do most if not all of the cooking and cleaning. They often live at home until they get married. And when they finally marry, most men leave housework to their wives.

According to a recent study married men in Portugal do less work around the house than in any other European Union country. But with the number of divorces rising rapidly in Portugal – there were 27,960 divorces last year in a country of just over 10 million people – thousands of men are having to iron their clothes and make dinner for the first time in their lives.

Many of these newly divorced men have turned to the website, called Vida On, for advice on what for them were 'women's worries'. On the website they can find out which bathroom cleaner works best or how to clean a stain from a white shirt. The most popular feature is a section offering recipes for beginners in the kitchen. The recipes are divided into those that are easy, for 'normal days', and more difficult ones for special days'.

In addition to domestic tips, the site gives advice for men who are worried about starting to date again. Other sections offer health and beauty tips as well as an entertainment guide for the newly single man. These topics are not covered in traditional men's magazines, and women's magazines write about them in a completely different way, said Oliveira.

a Read the text. Mark the sentences T (True) or F (False)

- 1 The new website is for men who have just got divorced T
- 2 Most Portuguese men are good at housework.
- 3 Portuguese couples usually share the housework.
- 4 Portuguese men normally leave home after school.
- 5 There are more and more divorces in Portugal.
- 6 Men and women's magazines give the same kind of advice.

The fisherman and the banker

An American banker was walking on a beautiful beach in a small Mexican village. He saw a fisherman in his boat with a few fish on it.

'Great fish!' he said. 'How long did it take you to catch them?'

'Not very long,' answered the fisherman.

'Why didn't you stay at sea longer to catch some more?' asked the banker.

'There are just enough fish here to feed my family,' answered the Mexican.

Then the American asked, 'But what do you do the rest of the time?'

'I sleep late, I fish a little, I play with my kids, I have siestas. In the evening, I go to see my friends in the village. We drink wine and play the guitar. I'm busier than you think. Life here isn't as...'

The American interrupted him. 'I have an MBA from Harvard University and I can help you. You're not fishing as much as you can. If you start fishing for longer periods of time, you'll get enough money from selling the fish to buy a bigger boat. Then with the money you'll get from catching and selling more fish, you could buy a second boat and then a third one and so on. Then instead of selling your fish to shops, you could sell them directly to a fish factory, or even open your own factory. Then you'll be able to leave your little village for Mexico City and finally move to New York, where you could direct the company.'

'How long will that take?' asked the Mexican.

'About 15 to 20 years,' answered the banker.

'And then?'

'Then it gets more interesting,' said the American, smiling and talking more quickly. 'When the moment comes, you can put your company on the stock market and you will make millions.'

'Millions? But then what?'

'Then you can retire, live in a small village by the sea, go to the beach, sleep late, play with your kids, ...'

b Mark the sentences T (True) or F (False).

1 The Mexican needed more fish

2 He enjoyed his lifestyle

3 The American wanted him to work harder.

4 He told the Mexican to buy a smaller boat.

5 The American said he would be rich in five years.

3 READING

a Read the article and answer these questions.

1 How far is the airport from the city centre? 14 miles.

2 How much does the BART cost for two people one way?

3 If your taxi fare is $40, how much should you tip? _____

4 How much does the airport bus cost for two adult returns?

5 What time is the earliest bus to the airport? _____

6 Which forms of transport will take you straight to your hotel?
_____ and _____

San Francisco International Airport

San Francisco International Airport is 14 miles south of the city. Travel time to the centre during rush hour is about 40 minutes; at other times it's about 20 to 25 minutes.

Getting into town from the airport

BART (Bay Area Rapid Transit, the San Francisco metro, www.bart.gov) began running from the airport to the city in June 2003. This new route avoids traffic and costs about $6 each way, depending on exactly where you're going. Trains leave approximately every 20 minutes.

TAXIS from the airport to the city centre cost $30 to $35, plus tip (this should be around 10% of the fare).
AIRPORT BUSES leave from outside the baggage-claim area every 30 minutes from 5.35 a.m. to 9.05 p.m. They stop at several Union Square-area hotels, including the Grand Hyatt, San Francisco Hilton, and Palace. No reservations are needed. For the return trip, the buses pick up at hotels as early as 5.30 a.m. Make a reservation 24 hours in advance if possible. The cost per person is $13 single, $22 return; children under 12 are free.

BACON AND EGG ICE CREAM — YOU ARE JOOKING!

A

Not many people realize this but before the Second World War people didn't always eat sweet ice cream. In the nineteenth century fish ice cream was popular – also asparagus and cheese!

B

At the Royal Institution in London yesterday 200 chefs, ice cream sellers, and food scientists met to try some new, or perhaps old, flavours. They could find it difficult to sell a mustard ice cream with chocolate on a sunny day at the beach, but they all wanted to try the new flavours themselves.

C

Heston Blumenthal, The Good Food Guide's 'Chef of the Year', prepared a special meal for them. The starter was mustard ice cream, then there was crab ice cream for the main course, and dessert was traditional vanilla ice cream. Mr Blumenthal serves a wide variety of ice creams at his restaurant The Fat Duck in Berkshire. However, at The Fat Duck, ice cream is part of a meal not the complete meal.

D

Later, there was a competition open to the public to find the best new flavour. 'The winner?' Wait for it – a mixture of tomato, peanuts, and coconut chocolate bar!

E

There was a lot of discussion about some of the new flavours. 'Bacon and egg with tomato? Disgusting!' said Marcus, 28, from west London. But Gloria Westlake, 39, disagreed. 'The bacon and egg was just delicious,' she said. 'And I loved the mustard one too! I am going to try and make it myself!'

F

Whatever next? Cabbage-flavoured chocolate bars? Steak-o-cola?

AIRTRAVEL - RULES FOR FLYING

1

If it's too big and heavy, that's your fault. Why didn't you check it in or bring fewer clothes with you?

2

OK – you've seen it a hundred times before – sit quietly and read. Don't talk, or laugh, or distract the flight attendants. If they get angry with you in front of the other passengers, you'll feel very stupid.

3

The flight attendants didn't cook it and there's nothing they can do about it. 10,000 metres up in the sky with no kitchen.

4

Apart from anything else it's rude to keep it on. But also you can then hear what they say and they don't have to shout.

5

They've given you a drink and a meal. They've taken away the trays. They are tired. They want something to eat too. Wait 15–20 minutes before you ask for one.

6

The sign is always on for a reason: you're close to take-off or landing, or the weather is bad. Travellers who have been in a really bad storm or hit a really big air pocket always obey the sign.

7

It isn't their job. On a full jumbo jet there are almost 50 passengers using each one. Would you want to clean them?

3 Answer the question below.

Przeczytaj tekst i dopasuj nagłówki (A–H) do odpowiednich akapitów. Wpisz odpowiednie litery w kratki (1–7). Jeden nagłówek jest zbytni.

Pamiętaj! W ćwiczeniu 2 mogłeś/aś już odnaleźć istotne fragmenty tekstu potrzebne do dopasowania nagłówków.

- A Don't ask for a drink just after a meal.
- B Don't complain about the food.
- C Be quiet during the safety demonstration.
- D Take a moment to think what their day has been like.
- E Don't ask for help with your bag.
- F Wear your seatbelt when the sign is on.
- G Take your headset off if they talk to you.
- H Don't ask them to clean the lavatories.

NATURAL DISASTER!

In August 1883, a huge natural disaster happened in Indonesia on the small, little known, island of Krakatoa. The effects of this disaster were felt all around the world.

Krakatoa is an island volcano between the much larger islands of Java and Sumatra. In early 1883 Krakatoa started to become active. There were earthquakes and a few small explosions. Then, on 26th and 27th August, there were much larger explosions. The last one destroyed most of the island and was the biggest volcanic eruption of modern times.

More than 36 000 people died and 165 villages were destroyed. People heard the noise of the explosion four hours later on the island of Rodriguez, more than 4,500 kilometres away. Waves 40 metres high travelled across the sea from the island. One reached the Middle East. 12 hours later windows broke 160 kilometres away. Ash fell on ships at sea more than 6 000 kilometres away.

Much of the volcanic ash went into the air, and over the next 13 days it travelled all round the earth. For the next three years people often saw blue and green suns, and the most incredible sunsets.

Krakatoa was quiet for a while, but in 1927 a new island, named Anak Krakatau or Child of Krakatoa, appeared out of the sea. Scientists who study Anak Krakatau say that this new island is becoming more active. Is there going to be another explosion like the one in 1883? It's probably just a question of time.

Dear Mrs Holdaway,

I would like to apply for the job of part-time hotel receptionist advertised in The Courier this weekend.

[B]

I am 18 years old and in my final year at school. However, I am free to work the hours that you need at weekends and evenings. When I finish school, I am hoping to go to art college and therefore would be happy to continue working part-time.

[C]

I have had two jobs before. The first was working for my uncle, helping with office work and answering the telephone. The second was as a shop assistant at Fraser's department store. In both jobs I had to deal with people – this is something I am very good at and enjoy.

[D]

I am available for interview any evening after 5 p.m.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Choosing a DJ

If you're having a big party for a wedding or an important birthday, then maybe you need a DJ. DJs are great if you don't have enough money or space to have a live band. A live band is more fun to watch, but a good DJ can be very entertaining and can keep people dancing all night.

Quality

If you decide to have a DJ, the most important thing to consider is quality. DJs need to be reliable, they need to have professional equipment, and they need to be experienced. And good DJs can be difficult to find.

Style of music

When you're hiring a DJ it's important to make sure that you like the music they play. If they're experienced, they should ask you what kind of party you're having, and what kind of people will be there. This information will help them to choose the music they play – and a good DJ always wants to entertain people.

Equipment

Different DJs can have very different amounts of equipment, from small CD and minidisc players to large sound systems and disco lighting, and even live dancers. It's important to ask how much equipment the DJ has so you can plan an appropriate space for him or her to work in. Again, a good DJ will be able to adapt his or her equipment to your needs.

Cost

When booking a DJ it's important to understand that you get what you pay for. Experienced DJs are in demand and ask for higher fees than newer, less experienced DJs. A good DJ means a great party, so try to spend as much as you can. And don't forget to enjoy yourself!

4 READING

a Read the opinions about learning languages. Which do you think are the three best ideas?

WHAT'S THE BEST WAY TO ...?

Learn a language

This week we ask students and teachers from all over the world for their ideas.

Péter, student, Hungary

Find something interesting to read in the language you're studying. Reading really helps you learn new vocabulary and grammar. I'm studying French, and I try to read a little French every day – you don't have to spend a long time doing it, maybe just five minutes looking at a French newspaper or website

Ana, student, Spain

I think you have to concentrate on pronunciation from the beginning. You don't have to pronounce words perfectly, but you mustn't pronounce them in a way that people won't understand. I practise English pronunciation by repeating words after the tape or by saying the words in my head

Elke, language teacher, Sweden

You have to listen to the language as much as you can. In Sweden a lot of people speak very good English, and I think it's partly because there are TV programmes in English, so you hear the language a lot.

Sompong, IT consultant, Thailand

I don't have a lot of time for studying, but I think that the Internet is an incredible resource for learners of English around the world. Everybody with a computer has access to millions of pages of English, and you don't have to leave home – in a few seconds you can find something interesting to read. You don't have to be studying to learn a language – you can be enjoying yourself

Konrad, student, Poland

I think you have to have a good dictionary; it can really help you learn a language. It tells you what words mean, but it also gives you information about how words are used together, phrases, expressions, and pronunciation

b Complete the sentences with the people's names

- 1 Ana says that you don't need to have perfect pronunciation
- 2 _____ and _____ think that having a computer will help you learn
- 3 _____ thinks that a good reference book is important
- 4 _____ thinks that if you hear a language, you'll get better at speaking it
- 5 _____ says that reading can improve your vocabulary

Last day at school for boy with dirty shoes!

Last Wednesday started as normal for 15-year-old Michael Brewster at Hove Park School.

At 10.30 a.m., Michael's class were jogging 1 round the gym. But when Charles Duff, the sports teacher, told Michael to clean his dirty trainers, he got really angry. He ran 2 the gym, and back to the changing rooms where he found Mr Duff's keys. From there, he went 3 the car park, got 4 Mr Duff's Ford Mondeo and started the car. Then he drove 5 the road, 6 the bridge, 7 the security guard and 8 the school gates. Then he turned left and drove 9 the road for about 100 metres 10 the maths teacher's house. That was when he lost control. He tried to stop, went 11 the field and crashed into a tree. Michael has now left Hove Park School.

Union Square

Union Square is an important shopping area. Every major department store is nearby, and the square is also a centre for exclusive and high quality fashions, with names like Dior, Armani, Marc Jacobs, and Yves Saint Laurent all having boutiques in the area. If you like crowds, then Saturday afternoon would be the perfect time to visit. If you prefer to have the shops to yourself, then go when most of San Francisco is working. Weekday mornings are always quiet. Most stores are open until 8.00 p.m., and some even later. Here are some of our favourites.

BORDERS: Four floors of books, videos, DVDs, CDs, and more. There is a cafe on the second floor serving coffees and pastries, and a seating area overlooks Union Square. Special events, like author readings, are held on the third floor.

400 Post St,
(415) 399 1633

VIRGIN MEGASTORE:

This huge three-storey music store offers one of the largest selections of CDs in San Francisco. Virgin also sells music books and videos and hosts the occasional artist album signing. The third floor cafe is popular.

2 Stockton St,
(415) 397-4525

BANANA REPUBLIC:

You can find the latest fashions at prices that aren't cheap but won't break the bank. There are casual clothes that are still suitable for the office, like cashmere.

or lambswool sweaters. Accessories include hats, jackets, leather belts, and shoes.

256 Grant Ave,
(415) 788-3087

CAMPER: This Spanish-based company presents comfortable shoes in playful shapes and colours. The store itself is a 'work in progress', where customers can write or draw on the walls.

Bear attack!

If you were hiking in the North American wilderness and you saw a bear coming slowly towards you, what would you do?

| 'I'd talk to it quietly.' | <input type="checkbox"/> | 'I'd climb a tree.' | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 'I'd walk away slowly.' | <input type="checkbox"/> | 'I'd pretend to be dead.' | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 'I'd try not to look at it.' | <input type="checkbox"/> | 'I'd spray pepper in its eyes.' | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 'I'd make a loud noise.' | <input type="checkbox"/> | 'I'd try to fight it.' | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 'I'd run.' | <input type="checkbox"/> | | |

b Now read the rest of the article. Which sentence is the best summary?

- 1 There's nothing you can do if a bear attacks you
- 2 There are lots of things you can do if a bear attacks you
- 3 Bears always try to avoid people

Well, all of these are possible – the best thing to do depends on the mood that the bear is in. If it comes towards you slowly, experts say you should talk to it quietly, walk away as slowly as possible, and don't look the bear in the eye. It's possible that it will lose interest.

If not, then be aggressive, make a noise, and wave your hands. If this doesn't work, and the bear continues to come towards you, then run. But only if you are sure that you can reach somewhere safe before the bear reaches you. And remember that bears can run as fast as an Olympic sprinter! Don't climb a tree. Bears climb them all day long, and they can climb better than you can. Water is also not safe. Bears love water and are excellent swimmers. If your car is nearby, try to get inside.

If a bear attacks you, then you can pretend to be dead. Bears who don't want to eat you may lose interest and go away. If you have pepper spray, then spray it in the bear's face. This works 75% of the time. The final possibility is to fight back. Most bears are much bigger and stronger than you, but they may be surprised.

Our final advice? It's much better to avoid bears than to do any of the things above.

Life in Y3K

Most of us don't know what life will be like in the future, or even where we'll be a year from now, but it's fun to speculate. So, what might the world be like in the year 3000 (or Y3K as it's now called)? Here's what one expert suggests:

Q What forms will our bodies have in Y3K?

A We will be bigger and we'll need more food. The average adult male might weigh about 100 kilos. People will live for hundreds of years, and will have computers in their brains.

Q Computers in their brains! What do you mean?

A We will soon be able to repair the human brain, and finally replace it completely. In the future you might be able to record all your experiences on a disk, so you can re-live them when you want to. Communication will be 100 times faster too. Now we communicate by speaking, but in the future we may communicate by thoughts and images.

Q Will we still die?

A We might be able to avoid death, replacing all our body parts when we need to. If you die, it may only be by choice. It could be your choice – or it might be the choice of the government that runs your mind computer.

Q And what will humans do with their time?

A Computers will do all the work. All manufacturing production will be automated. We might just enjoy ourselves while technology does everything.

Q What about space travel?

A We might take control of space and live there too. There might be colonies on Mars or on other planets. Robots will travel far into the galaxy and we may find alien life.

Q But will we be happier?

A Well, I'm an optimist. I think in the end most of us will be happy and the world will be a better place. But who knows?

a Read the interview. Mark the sentences T (True) or F (False).

- 1 People will be larger and live much longer in the future. T
- 2 We won't be able to replace our brains.
- 3 We might be able to communicate without speaking.
- 4 We will definitely not die.
- 5 We won't need to work.
- 6 People and robots will travel in space.
- 7 We won't find any aliens.
- 8 The expert thinks the world may be a better, happier place in the future.

4 READING

1 The Japanese film director Hayao Miyazaki is one of the greatest animators in modern cinema. Films like Heidi, and Marco, 3000 miles in search of mother have made him famous all over the world.

In 1971 Miyazaki left Toei Douga Animation and worked with several other companies. He made Heidi, and Marco, 3000 miles in search of mother which were shown as TV series all over the world.

In 1952 they moved back to Tokyo. When Hayao was at secondary school he saw his first cartoon film, The Legend of the White Snake. He fell in love with the heroine, Pai-nyan and cried all night. It was this film which started his interest in animation.

In 1985 he and his friend and colleague Takahata started a film studio called Studio Ghibli. Since then Miyazaki has directed, written, and produced many other films with Takahata. All of these films have been major successes, particularly Princess Mononoke and the recent Spirited Away.

But he still loved cartoons. After he left university in 1963 he started work at Toei Douga Animation and he became very successful. While he was working there he met another artist, Akemi Ota. They got married in 1965 and they have two sons. They live in Tokyo.

But when he tried to draw he found he could only draw planes not people. So when he left school he decided to study economics and political science at university.

Hayao Miyazaki was born in Tokyo on January 5, 1941. His family had a company which made parts for planes, and when he was young Hayao spent a lot of time drawing planes. After the war, the family moved to Utsunomiya City.

a Read the text about Miyazaki. Order the paragraphs 1–7.

b Circle the correct verb form in the questions.

- 1 When was / has been Hayao Miyazaki born?
- 2 When did his family move / have his family moved back to Tokyo?
- 3 When did he see / has he seen his first cartoon film?
- 4 How long did he work / has he worked for Toei Douga Animation?
- 5 How long was he married / has he been married?

c Read the text again and answer the questions in b.

DANIELA NARDINI, actor, star of the BBC series This Life
Interview by Leila Farrah

1 Where did you go to school?

St Mary's Primary School in Largs, a small Scottish town. Then Largs Academy, the local secondary school.

2

No, my school reports usually used to say 'friendly and well-behaved'. I don't think I was rebellious, in fact I used to be quite shy. I became more of a rebel in secondary school. I stayed until I was eighteen, but I was quite lazy and uninterested and I didn't use to do very much work.

3

I used to love English and art, but I wasn't very good at maths. In English lessons we used to read plays, and I sat at the back of the class thinking, 'Why can't you all act a bit better?' It was the first time I thought about being an actor.

I used to love Miss O'Toole, one of my primary teachers. I loved her because at school, even if you were doing maths with her, which I didn't like, she used to let me draw, and she never got angry.

At secondary school I liked my biology teacher, Mr Scott, and my geography teacher, Mr Brunei, because they were nice people, although I wasn't very good at their subjects.

As a little girl I wanted to be a movie star, and I used to make my dad act out scenes with me. I also wanted to be a make-up artist.

6

Try to do the thing you love most – even if you think it's silly. I've learned most through working and acting, because it teaches me about life. To earn money by doing something you love can only make you a happier person.

b Look at the highlighted words. What do you think they mean? Check with your dictionary

Children's health

It's official – British children are getting fatter. According to a survey published in the British Medical Journal in 2001, nearly 16 per cent of two-year-olds are overweight and more than 20 per cent of four-year-olds are overweight. And since 2001, the problem has got worse. The government's latest health survey found that today about 30 per cent of all children are overweight.

WHY?

Children watch too much television and they see ten food advertisements for every hour of TV they watch. They do less exercise, play less sport, and spend more time watching videos or playing computer games than they did in the past. The problem isn't that children eat too much food or the wrong kind of food – though of course it's better to eat healthy foods than too much fat. The real problem is that too many children don't get any physical exercise.

WHAT CAN WE DO?

So how can we help our children develop a healthy attitude to food and exercise? Well parents should try to help children to eat healthily when they're still young – we need to give children good habits at an early age. This means for example giving children fruit, not sweets and eating meals together as a family if possible. Cooking with children is also a good idea to teach them the importance of good food. A lot of children don't like vegetables but even a few vegetables every day can help to improve their diet.

And instead of driving our children everywhere we should encourage them to walk or cycle. We should make exercise interesting and exciting for them. Playing football in the park is much better for children than playing on the computer.

3 They have the same hobbies. —
4 Catherine always knows how Michelle is feeling. —
5 They like the same films. —
6 They live in the same city. —
7 They're good at all the same things. —
8 Catherine doesn't like having a twin sister. —

Catherine Orr is 19 and is a non-identical twin. She tells us about her relationship with her sister, Michelle.

Don't call us 'the twins'!

How do you think it is different being a twin?

I think it's very different. We've been through exactly the same things: the same birthdays, the same parties, the same first day at school, the same evil maths teacher.

Do you think you and Michelle are more similar than ordinary sisters?

Definitely. If I don't like a film, then neither does she. We pick up the phone at the same time to call each other. If I get ill, so does she.

Do you get on well with Michelle now?

Yes, I see her about once a week, although it doesn't make much difference if we see each other or not. We always know how the other is feeling. I think it's hard not to be close when you have known someone your whole life.

What were the best things about being a twin as a child? And now?

You have someone who knows you almost as well as you know yourself, someone who is experiencing all the same things as you. Now it's great because we have almost exactly the same memories. She is my memory sometimes.

What were the worst things?

People called us 'the twins' as if we were one person – I hated that, and so did Michelle. Some people also used to save money and buy one birthday present for both of us! Also Michelle was good at sport and I was terrible – that was difficult for me.

3 READING

a Read the text Which sentence is the best summary?

- 1 British and American English are almost exactly the same
- 2 The most important difference between British and American English is the vocabulary
- 3 Travellers don't have problems understanding British and American English

American and British English

If you've learnt British English and you're travelling in the States, or if you've learnt American English and you're travelling in Britain, you'll notice some differences. An obvious difference is the accent, but most travellers find that they don't have too many problems with this. There are some grammatical differences, but they shouldn't make it difficult to understand people, or to communicate. That leaves differences in vocabulary, which can cause misunderstandings. Sometimes the difference is only the spelling, for example, in British English centre, colour, and travelled, and in American English center, color, and traveled. But sometimes the word is completely different in British and American English, and it's a good idea to be prepared.

Can you match the British and American words?
